Total cost is only $149.

Divorce or separation is the act of dissolving a marriage. When that marriage ends the family is transformed. The events that occur after a divorce or separation will directly effect the future of the parents, children, and their relationships, which is why managing and organizing the parental roles is essential.

A parenting plan or agreement will clarify current issues and address those that you see forth coming. It will allow you and the other parent to make the best decisions possible on a consistent basis. The benefits of a parenting plan is fewer mistakes, less arguments, and happy and healthier children and parents.

Our Online Parenting Plan Service will allow you to develop and execute your very own personalized parenting plan. It will be a legal binding contract between you and the other parent which will act as the blueprints of a successful parenting experience. The total cost of this service is $149.00.

Divorce Source™ has developed this "Secure and Hacker Safe" service and is offering it as an affordable way for people to do their own parenting plan or agreement without hiring the services of a lawyer. Over 14 years of experience and 120,000 customers later, Divorce Source™ has used its experience, expertise, and customer input to create an easy to use and inexpensive online service for developing a comprehensive parenting plan.
